

PROCLAMATION!

A General Day of Deep Mourning Ordered

By the Chief Executive of the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The following proclamation was issued this morning by the President:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, July 23.—The President of the United States has received the sad tidings of the death of that illustrious citizen and ex-President of the United States, General U. S. Grant, at Mt. McGregor, in the state of New York, to which place he had lately been removed in the endeavor to prolong his life. In making this announcement to the people of the United States, the President is impressed with the magnitude of the public loss of the great military leader, who was in the hour of victory magnanimous, amid disaster serene and self sustained, who in every station, whether as a soldier or chief magistrate, twice called to power by his fellow countrymen, trod unswervingly the path of duty, undecided by doubts, single-minded and straightforward, the country has witnessed with deep emotion his prolonged and painful struggle with a painful disease, and has watched by his couch with tearful sympathy. The destined end has come at last and his spirit has returned to the Creator, who sent it forth. The great heart of the nation that followed him when living with love and pride, bows now in sorrow above him dead, tenderly mindful of his virtues, his great patriotic services, and of the loss occasioned by his death.

In testimony to the memory of General Grant it is ordered that the executive mansion and the several departments at Washington be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that all public business shall on the day of the funeral be suspended, and the Secretaries of War and Navy will cause orders to be issued for appropriate military and naval honors to be rendered on that day.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, July 23, A. D. 1885, and of the Independence of the United States the 110th.

GROVER CLEVELAND, President.

T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

Wood Dodd, who left here some time since for Bowie, to join the contemplated expedition of Gen. Crook to Mexico, as guide, has returned to Clifton. He did considerable traveling in Mexico, and had a varied and interesting experience. He is an old and experienced Indian fighter, and knows this part of Arizona and Sonora familiarly. It is interesting to hear him tell his experience on the frontier and his opinion of military officers, who never having seen an Indian or a trail, are sent fresh from the military academy to cope with the wily savages.—Clifton Clarion.

A gentleman who recently returned from Bowie, where Gen. Crook had his headquarters, remarked to us that he observed a very marked change in the appearance of the old General and renowned Indian fighter. He seems to have lost much of the buoyancy and elasticity of former years—was more retired, reserved and reticent, seldom appearing in public except when official duties required his presence. No doubt he feels keen disappointment by not being promoted to the vacancy occasioned by the death of Gen. McDowell.—Clifton Clarion.

The force on the Prescott Journal drink nothing stronger than soda water and sarsaparilla, while those employed on the Clifton Clarion worry through the heated term by imbibing claret punches.

The freight rates on the railroads running through Arizona are oscillating up and down the scale of value with an activity that is quite bewildering to the ordinary shipper of merchandise.—Tucson Citizen.
